Pause . Unwind . Grow

In the busyness of parish life, it is so easy to miss time for our own family relationships. The Marriage Council is therefore inviting clergy and their spouses to a relaxing 48-hour break in the tranquil comfort of the Tullamore Court Hotel, from the 5th to the 7th of March 2026.

It is our desire that this mini-break away will refresh you and allow you time for one another. Therefore we want you to have as much space to enjoy the hotel and the vibrant town of Tullamore.

Whilst the time is yours, Dr Alan and Mrs Pauline Wilson will facilitate a few mini-sessions sharing stories, and providing practical insights into navigating marriage which we hope will help couples who attend.

The cost of the break will be €100 per couple, with the balance borne by the Marriage Council.

If you would like to reserve a space, please contact Aisling Sheridan at aisling.sheridan@rcbcoi.org
