INTRODUCTION

Whilst reseatching the history of my family at the Hyde Park FHC, I noticed a microfilm purporting to contain miscellaneous Irish genealogical material. Amongst the microfilmed documents was a transcript of the earliest surviving Kilsaran Parish Registers, which are shown in the recently published IFHS/NA parish register list as having been destroyed in the Four Courts fire of 1922. To correct this oversight and to bring the existence of the document to the attention of a wider audience, I decided to produce a new version of the original (unattributed) transcript; this document is the result. As with all documents of this nature the original should be consulted to confirm that entries have been transcribed and indexed accurately.

The following specific points should be borne in mind when using the transcript:

Dates All dates have been standardised as follows; day in numbers, month in three letters (abbreviated as necessary), year. Any apparent errors have been shown in bold.

Legibility and Spelling In cases of doubt, the spelling of surnames has been checked against other entries in the index; variations in the spelling of the same surname have been noted.

Additional Information Marginal notes and comments from the Register copy appear in the text or as footnotes.

The Index The index lists in alphabetical order all persons who were baptised, married and buried at Kilsaran over the various periods covered by the Register copy. Abbreviated Christian names have been transcribed exactly as they appear in the Register copy.

Transcriber's Observations The original transcriber noted that, by comparison with surviving gravestones, the burial register was incomplete for Gernonstown (Castlebellingham) churchyard and did not include Kilsaran graveyard.

History of the Church and Parish Canon Leslie's recently reprinted history of the Kilsaran Union is the standard work on the subject. It is interesting to note that the Revd Alexander McClintock is amongst the clergymen listed (Rector 1797-1810). He moved from Kilsaran to Newtownbarry (Rector 1810-1836) and Clonegal (Rector 1828-1836), parishes which already feature in this series.

JUBILATE DEO
(Psalm 100)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure the Lord he is God: it is he
that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak
good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.
