Representative Church Body Library, Dublin

Ms 523

Records of Bishop Foy's School, Waterford

1711-1902

From Mr T.N. Foster, Waterford, 1993; The Palace, Kilkenny, 2004

Register of the charity school in Waterford founded and endowed by the will of Nathaniel Foy (d.1707), Bishop of Waterford and Lismore 1691-1707, which includes details of apprenticeships in Waterford which also were endowed by his will.

f.1 Memoranda of money deposited with Waterford Corporation by the will of Bishop Foy for binding apprentices.

f.2 Register of sons and daughters of the inhabitants of the city of Waterford who were apprenticed pursuant to the will of Bishop Foy, 1711-1757.
Most entries give the name of the child; date of the apprenticeship; name of the master to whom he or she was apprenticed; and the terms of the apprenticeship.

f.28^{v} Accounts of Richard [Chenevix] Bishop of Waterford and Lismore of money received and paid by him for apprenticing children on the nomination of the Mayor and Dean of Waterford, 1746-1757.

f.35^{v} Account of Waterford Corporation of interest lodged with it pursuant to the will of Bishop Foy for binding apprentices, 1755-1758.

f.38 Register of pupils admitted to the Charity School,1714-1902, preceded by a short account of the foundation of the school.
Most entries provide the name and age of the pupil; name, religion & trade of father; qualifications of the pupil, when and in what circumstances he left the school.

Three sheets of architectural drawings for alterations and additions to Bishop Foy’s School, by J.F. Fuller, architect, and signed and dated by John Ryan & Son, 22 July 1873.